AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

Nature of committee:	Audit Committee
Owner:	Company Secretary
Approval:	Board
Approval date:	14 August 2019
Status:	Final

1. Introduction

The Audit Committee (“Committee”) is established by the Board of Directors (“Board”) of QBE Insurance Group Limited (“Company”).

2. Role

The role of the Committee is to assist the Board in overseeing the effectiveness of the Company’s and the consolidated Group’s financial reporting and risk management framework. In particular, the Committee will oversee and monitor the integrity of the Group’s financial reporting, including:

- financial reporting to regulators and shareholders;
- financial reporting risks;
- accounting policies, practices and disclosures;
- the scope and outcome of external and internal audits;
- the financial control environment;
- the scope of the external actuarial review; and
- the adequacy and independence of the internal and external audit functions.

It is not intended that the Committee should assume any of management’s responsibilities in these areas.

3. Composition

The Committee will be comprised of a minimum of three members as determined by the Board. All members must be non-executive directors. A majority of the members of the Committee must be independent.

No alternates will be permitted unless agreed by the Committee Chairman at a meeting of the Committee.

The Chairman of the Committee will be appointed by the Board and must be an independent non-executive director who is not the Chairman of the Board.

A Company Secretary of the Board will act as Secretary to the Committee.

The composition of the Committee is to be reviewed at least annually as part of the Board performance assessment.

The Committee members between them must have accounting and financial expertise and qualifications and have a sufficient understanding of the business of the Group and the markets in which it operates.

4. Authority

The Committee has the authority as delegated within this Charter to:

- investigate any activity falling within the scope of this Charter;
- obtain all information necessary for the performance of the Committee’s role as set out in this Charter;
- access the Group Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”), Group Chief Financial Officer (“CFO”), Group Head of Internal Audit, Group Chief Actuary, executives and other employees, and any external parties including the external auditor as required for the performance of the Committee's role as set out in this Charter, including to seek additional information and explanation during its meetings;

- appoint specialist independent third-party advisers or legal, accounting, actuarial or other consultants to independently advise the Committee; and
- attend relevant external training courses after consent from the Chairman of the Company and in accordance with the Non-Executive Director Continuing Development Program.

5. Scope

The Committee is responsible for:

Financial reporting

- overseeing compliance with applicable financial reporting, regulatory and professional accounting requirements;
- reviewing, assessing and recommending to the Board for approval the annual and half-year financial statements and other financial statements as applicable, including any disclosures, commentary and notes;
- reviewing, assessing and recommending to the Board for approval the annual regulatory returns;
- reviewing, assessing and recommending to the Board for approval the full-year and half-year insurance liabilities and associated risk margins;
- reviewing and assessing, as applicable, the Group's:
 - external auditor's reports;
 - Group Chief Actuary's reports; and
 - declarations to be made by directors, CEO and CFO.
- discussing with management and the external auditor significant financial and other reporting issues, judgements and findings made in connection with the preparation of the above noted reports and considering the adequacy of management's responses;
- recommending areas of significant accounting judgement to the Board for approval;
- discussing with management and the external auditor judgements on the quality and appropriateness of accounting principles applied by the Company in financial reporting, and accounting policy treatment;
- reviewing and assessing information from internal auditors that may relate to the quality of the financial reports;
- discussing with management and the external auditor any major financial risk exposures and the steps management has taken to monitor and control such exposures;
- discussing with management and the external auditor any major issues as to the adequacy of the internal controls and any actions taken to address material control deficiencies in relation to financial reporting and regulatory compliance;
- reviewing with management and the external auditor the effect of regulatory and accounting changes and assessing their impact on financial reports;
- reviewing the impact of, or any major suggested changes to, auditing and accounting principles and practices and the methods or judgements used to account for significant or unusual transactions where different approaches are possible;
- approving audit-related policies and guidelines (not otherwise reserved for the Board or other Board Committees or not falling within the scope of management approval);

- reviewing and recommending to the Board for approval finance policies as appropriate, e.g. Group Tax Risk Policy.

External audit

- reviewing the qualifications and experience of the external auditor and considering the independence (at least annually) and any potential conflicts of interest of the external auditor in the context of any policies issued by the Group and relevant regulatory requirements;
- monitoring the performance of the external auditor and overseeing the relationship with the external auditor;
- endorsing and recommending to the Board the appointment, reappointment or removal of the external auditor for shareholder approval;
- if the Committee's recommendation to remove the external auditor from their position is agreed by the Board, the Committee must discuss the reasons for the external auditor's removal with relevant regulators no later than 10 business days after the Board agrees with that recommendation;
- reviewing the scope of the external audit plan to ensure¹ that it covers all material risks and relevant financial reporting and other regulatory requirements, and reviewing the terms of engagement letter and fees for services provided;
- recommending to the Board for approval the external audit plan;
- recommending to the Board for approval the remuneration of the external auditor;
- recommending to the Board for approval the rotation of the audit engagement partner;
- reviewing the findings of the audits and ensuring that identified issues are being managed and rectified in an appropriate and timely manner;
- discussing with the external auditor matters relating to the conduct of the audit, including any difficulties encountered in the course of the audit work, any restrictions on scope of activities or access to requested information and any significant disagreements with management;
- monitoring the provision of non-audit services by the external auditor in the context of the QBE Group policy on the provision of non-audit services;
- periodically consulting with the external auditor without the presence of management;

Internal audit

- reviewing the qualifications, experience, resources, and independence of the internal audit function and assessing whether the internal audit function has the necessary authority, capability and resource to conduct its role in an effective and objective manner;
- reviewing the scope of the internal audit plan to ensure that it covers all material risks and relevant financial reporting and other regulatory requirements and monitoring performance of the internal audit function against the plan;
- reviewing the findings of the audits and ensuring that identified issues are being managed and rectified in an appropriate and timely manner, including by having management accountable for internal audit issues providing updates to the Committee;
- monitoring the provision of non-audit services by the internal audit function;
- periodically consulting with the internal auditors without the presence of management;
- confirming that the internal audit function is operating within the framework of the QBE Group
