The 8 GoalDrivers.

05

SUCCESSFUL

Your drive is to be successful, whatever that may mean to you. It could relate to status, position, financial or the type of person you want to be for family and community. You want to play a key part in influencing your results. Overall you want to be the best version of you that you can possibly be. You want to excel and achieve your true potential as you strive to explore the possibilities of what life and business has to offer. You are often described as strong, persistent and decisive as a person who hates to fail and someone who never wants to live with regret.

1

PURPOSEFUL

Your drive is to have meaning in your life, in the work you do, to do what matters and makes a difference whether it is to a few, to many or to the masses. You want to accomplish greatness in a number of areas of your life and explore what life has to offer. For you, you know there is a bigger picture, reason and why for you to push yourself further. You have determination to achieve what is important to you and you have the resolve to see it through to your preferred result.

2

INSPIRED

Your drive is to be inspired and to be inspiring. You seek out opportunities, causes, circumstances and situations where you can either inspire other people or be inspired by those around you or the environments you are in at the time. You want to feel empowered, optimistic and energised and seek out goals to achieve, not just for the sense of achieving it, but also for the feeling you gain from it. You are a curious adventurer, so the journey is more important than the destination.

3

HAPPY

Who doesn't want to be happy, however for you this driver sits on top of your priority list. If it is not going to make you happy, you don't want to know about it. It is your measure for everything you do and you seek out the right circumstances and places that will make you happy or even happier. This emotional driver is made up of many parts, the desire to have joy in your life, to be loved, valued, appreciated are really important to you and influence your mindset, motives and moods.

4

ORGANISED

Your drive is to get it right or make it right. You love it when a plan comes together and particularly if it was your plan to start with. You like to be in control of what can be controlled. The more organised you are, the more calm you become, and more focused you are, the more consistent you become. You are careful, precise and logical in your approach to projects, roles and life. You like to take your time, to create space for you to implement your ideas and know that when you do this everything will work out for the best.

5

RESPECTED

Your drive is to be shown respect as a result of what you have achieved, how far you have come, what knowledge you have been given or the recognition that has been bestowed upon you. You appreciate being acknowledged and being held in high regard. You don't seek it, however you do appreciate it. You work towards growing and developing your skills and knowledge as that is your super power when it comes to you achieving your personal and professional goals.

6

CONFIDENT

Your drive is to be confident in your ability, capable in your skills and contented in what you have achieved. You fully understand that if you have confidence you can conquer most challenges and circumstances. Your confidence inspires others to emulate you, it gives hope to those around you and it continues to encourage you to pursue your dreams and goals. You are comfortable in what you do, how you do it and who you have become in the process.

7

RELAXED

For you it is important that whatever you achieve will not upset the lifestyle you have created for yourself and your family. You want your goals to complement your life, not detract from your life. You like to have time and space around you to just be, to connect with people and to create a balance between achievement and awareness. You fully appreciate the people in your world who get you and the pace you like to travel at to achieve your key goals.
