

Healthcare Liability

QBE understands the range of risks faced by healthcare organizations and life science innovators on their journey to provide quality healthcare to save and sustain lives. The constantly evolving landscape of medical advancements and patient care requires expert underwriters who are informed on current trends, enthusiastic about solving complex risks and have a desire to partner with the brokerage community to help meet customer needs.

Our seasoned team of specialized, healthcare-focused underwriters, claims and actuarial professionals enable us to navigate these risks and develop solutions specifically tailored to support the needs of healthcare professionals and providers of medical products.
