We would draw your attention to the following policy conditions:

1. Any period between the date of an Insured person's total disablement and the commencement of treatment by a duly qualified medical practitioner is not covered.
2. The maximum period of total disablement during which an insured person can receive Temporary Total Disablement Compensation and Temporary Partial Disablement Compensation is 104 weeks.
3. The policy covers death by accident only. Death caused by illness or disease is excluded.

If you are entitled to receive:

- disability benefits under any other policy insurance;
- weekly compensation under any workers' compensation legislation;
- sick pay from your employer;
- earned income from any other occupation.

Then the amount of compensation payable under your QBE policy will be reduced so that the total of all such payments does not exceed your pre-disability earnings.

Weekly benefit

Payment of compensation may be subject to a deferment period. A deferment period means the number of days after medical treatment by a qualified medical practitioner commences before we will pay weekly benefits.

Claims

The Policy does not provide cover in relation to events that occurred before the contract was entered into.
