QBE names Ronak Shah as CEO of Singapore

QBE, the business insurance specialist, has appointed Ronak Shah as its Singapore CEO.

Having joined QBE in 2017 as the Regional Head of Financial & Professional and Casualty Lines, Ronak has been instrumental in growing the Financial Lines portfolio across the region and is no stranger to Asia.

Ronak comes with extensive experience in risk & insurance broking, underwriting, and consulting in the insurance space. Having worked in international broker organisations prior to joining QBE, Ronak's appointment is aligned to QBE's focus on building a more agile and customer-centred organisation for the future.

In his new role, Ronak is responsible for QBE Singapore's operations. He will be based in Singapore and reports to Jason Hammond, CEO of QBE Asia.

Jason Hammond, CEO of QBE Asia said: "I am confident that with Ronak's extensive experience and leadership, he will bring a customer focused approach to growing our business in Singapore and I am really looking forward to working with him in this new role."
