

GUIDE: STATE SPECIFIC COVID-19 ORDERS

Many state governors have issued specific COVID-19 response plans and executive orders including variations of shelter in place, stay home orders.

- Please refer to specific state governors' websites and State Department of Health websites for specific details about certain industry exclusions, requirements for those reporting for work, and any updates on these orders.
- The Council of State Governments has developed a helpful resource, which lists state-specific executive orders and responses to COVID-19.
- For detailed information about the impacts of certain orders to employers, you may refer to the GRSM COVID-19 HUB.
